JEFF AND JOHNSON WORK HARD

Working on the Final Touches Preparatory to the Great Battle, and Both Will Finish Their Work Probably Friday.

ODDS ARE IN FAVOR OF JEFF

Dopesters Are Busy Figuring Out Results, and in Jeff's Camp They Claim If the Fight Is Not Settled in the Early Rounds Jeff's Staying Qualities Are Certain to Make Him a Winner—Johnson's Friends Confident, But Want Big Odds on Bet.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] (By Max Balthasar.)

Mono Springs Training Camp, Reno, Nev., June 28.—Jeffries trotted out of camp today, and, with the customary following of trainers, streaked out over the Nevada roads for a 10-mile hike. It had been announced that he would box during the morning, and do his road work in the afternoon. As usual, having a dislike for a set program, the big fellow vetoed the program, and reversed it, declaring he would box after returning from his long hike over the road. It is expected he will hammer his sparring partners this afternoon. Jeff has been trying himself out at a boxer.

The other day Sam Berger tried to "get fresh" with the big fellow. Jeff slipped one to Sam's stomach, and Sammy was very sick for awhile. He denies that he had to be held up to keep from taking the count, but he had to go to bed for a few hours before he could eat any breakfast.

With the feeling of optimism inspired by the near-grouch, the dopesters are showing the greatest activity they have exhibited since the preparations for the battle began.

Bob Armstrong has pulled the duration of the battle down to six rounds with Jeff being good enough, if Johnson will allow the white fighter to get close, to have a nice inside chance to cop it off in the first period. Farmer Burns is more conservative. His conservatism is not based on doubt of the ability of his idol to beat the big black, but is the result of his inborn conservative spirit. Jeff, he declares, will win within 15 rounds, and if the fight goes longer than that he is willing to bet his clothes the negro will be so badly punished that he will already have lost the fight.

"If it goes 15 rounds," said the farmer, "it will simply resolve itself into a case of endurance, and if there is one thing Jim has on Johnson, it is endurance."

Roger Cornell argues along the lines laid down by Burns. He admits that the earlier rounds may go against Jeffries a trifle, but that with one-third of the battle over provided neither man is badly hurt, the tide will turn in Jeffries' favor.

(By Tip Wright.)

Rick's Training Camp, Reno, Nev., June 28.—Jack Johnson, six days before the big battle, is just a big, good-natured darkey out on a frolic. His smile is on the job all the time; he is jovial, and apparently the least worried man in his camp is the dusky fighter himself.

That he is light-hearted was shown, when, after his hard work yesterday, he took out his cello, seated near the piano and played frolicsome airs until midnight. He went to bed happy, and today was ready for the training grind again, apparently fresh and full of spirit. Johnson's work is deceptive. I watched him carefully yesterday when he boxed his ten rounds under the hot Nevada sun. Most of the time he was on the defensive, save for an occasional left counter or right cross to the chin, when his sparring partners became over confident of their ability to land. He did it easily, apparently with about as much effort as when he was sawing the bow across the big fiddle strings. That is the way he works. Sometimes his work is so slow that it looks slovenly. Sometimes the big fighter appears to be loafing. But he works so easily that it is hard to comprehend how much effort there is behind his careless motions. It is always noticeable, however that no matter how little he appears to be working, his sparring partners are steaming and puffing, and are doing their best to land on the big fellow, without having the least effect, unless he lets a slam go through, just to show the crowd how little big fellows like Al Kaufman can jolt him. His handlers are confident. There is about $7000 in the camp, outside the sums that Jack may wager himself, to back the big black. The trainers, however, are playing the wise bettors, and are not putting up the cash just yet.

There is considerable comment in camp on the odds. The followers hope to see the odds go to 10 to 4 or even longer before the fight starts. Among the enthusiastic backers of the negro are Frank Sutton, of Pittsburgh, who has $3000 that he wants to place. He expects to get 10 to 4.

THE CHURCH BROKE INTO ZION CITY

METHODISTS INVADE THE CITY FOUNDED BY DOWIE AND VOLIVA, HEAD OF THE ZIONISTS, DECLARES WAR ON THEM.

[SPECIAL OREGON PRESS WIRE.]

Chicago, June 28.—A war between the Methodists and General Overseer Glenn Voliva is reported to have started today, following the dedication of a modest chapel by the Methodists inside the precincts of Zion City.

"We will fight this invasion to the death," Voliva is reported to have said, when he heard of the dedication.

Bishop McDowell and a large number of Methodist dignitaries assisted in the ceremonies. They say they are in Zion to stay and grow. The independents in Zion hailed the advent of the Methodists warmly, and sent a delegation of elders to the dedication of the chapel.

The new church will have the backing of business interests outside and Overseer Voliva has the battle of his life cut out if he undertakes to exterminate the invaders, according to the Methodists.

The Methodists dedicated their chapel in the forenoon yesterday, and in the afternoon Voliva, speaking at the tabernacle, hurled defiance. This draws the lines of battle clearly, and some interesting developments may be expected.

CHARLTON TAKEN BEFORE JUDGE

Jersey City, N. J., June 28.—Porter Charlton, confessed wife murderer, was arraigned before Judge Blair in the court of oyer and terminer here today. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff until July 8. His attorneys state that no attempt would be made to secure his release on habeas corpus or a lunacy writ.

Charlton didn't appear interested in the proceedings. On the way to court he objected to having handcuffs on his wrists, and they were removed. Attorneys for Charlton asked a delay of the court order following the arraignment, in order to gain an opinion to learn the attitude of the federal government concerning Charlton's extradition to Italy. Delay was also asked pending the report of the alienists in the case.

F. Floyd Clark, chief counsel for Charlton declared today that he did not believe his client would be returned to Italy, where Mrs. Charlton was killed. He said he based this belief upon the facts in the case of one Caldwell, a witness in the celebrated suit for the estate of the Duke of Portland, who fled to America, was pronounced insane, and was not returned to England.

Pauline is the name of the new White House cow. Of course it would never do to call the President's cow Boss.

TERRIFIC STORM IN KENTUCKY

Two Cloudbursts Occurred in the Beaver District—Reports from Mountain Districts Say Many Lost Their Lives in Wind Storm.

MANY FAMILIES HOMELESS

Rail Communication Is Demoralized and the Telegraph and Telephone Lines Are All Down—Hundreds of Families Have Been Driven to the Hills to Escape the Flood—Crops Have Been Ruined and Hundreds of Head of Stock Killed.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Whiteboro, Ky., June 28.—Scores of families living in the valley of the Middle fork of Beaver creek, along the border between Floyd and Knott counties are homeless today, following abnormally heavy rains in this section during the last 48 hours.

Hundreds of farmers with their families have fled to higher ground to escape the rising waters. Crops already have been damaged to the extent of many thousands of dollars and hundreds of livestock destroyed.

Two cloudbursts occurred last night in the Beaver Creek district. A bridge on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad near here and a cattle bridge over John Creek were washed away.

Rail communication through this section is demoralized and the telephone wires are prostrated.

Reports from the mountain districts state that several persons lost their lives in a terrific wind storm that preceded the rains. These reports, however, could not be verified.

Committee Coming West.

Washington, June 28.—The Western sub-committee on judiciary, consisting of Senators Borah, Brown and Stone, will go west in July to investigate several federal matters and it is possible they will take up the allegation of Dr. E. B. Perrin that he was unjustly indicted and accorded improper treatment by United States District Attorney Devlin and Special Agent Burns at San Francisco.

The committee also will investigate the charges of Governor Haskell of Oklahoma that "third degree" methods were used against him and his witnesses during the administration of President Roosevelt.

Few Die; None Resign.

Washington, June 28.—In a statement just issued by the bureau of insular affairs it is shown that the death rate among the 8000 government employes in the Philippine islands only 6.9 per thousand per annum.

Of the number of employes 3700 are Americans, and the conclusion is drawn that the Philippines are not unhealthy for Americans.

THIS TALK WAS NOT OF CHEAP KIND

STATESMEN USED 10,800,000 WORDS DURING RECENT SESSION OF CONGRESS AND APPROPRIATIONS EQUATED $100 PER WORD USED.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Washington, June 28.—In addition to spending $1,074,000,000 or a trifle more, the recent session of congress was the wordiest on record. The Congressional Record totaled nearly 10,000 pages and each page contains more words than the average newspaper column.

This has set statisticians to guessing the number of words uttered by the Washington solons during this session. Figuring that only 6,000 pages were devoted to debates and speeches, the other 4,000 pages to records, the statesmen uttered something like 10,800,000 words.

Bills introduced in the house during the session numbered 27,065 and in the senate 8,800. Thousands of these were pension and private claim bills. Of those intended for the public good 136 houses and 83 senate bills have become laws. The senate ratified three treaties of no great importance and confirmed 10,800 appointments by the president, who established a record in the number of appointments.

The recent session convened on December 6. The long sessions of the five preceding congresses ended on May 30, June 30, April 28, July 1 and June 7.

Deaths since the preceding session included Senators McLaurin, of Mississippi and Johnson of North Dakota, and Representatives Biggs of Georgia, Lovering of Massachusetts, Perkins of New York, Dearmond of Missouri and Lamster of Virginia.

EXPLODED A BOMB IN THE THEATER

EIGHT MORTALLY WOUNDED WHEN BOMB WAS THROWN INTO CROWDED THEATER IN BUENOS AYRES.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Buenos Ayres, June 28.—Three hundred men are in jail today and the police are exhausting every means to learn the identity of the person who threw a bomb in the Teatro Colón during a performance when the theater was filled with people last night.

Eight persons were mortally wounded and a panic was barely averted.

While the confusion was at its height the orchestra played the national anthem and the people were calmed.

A reward of $50,000 has been offered for information leading to the identification of the bomb thrower.

HINDUS ARE ORDERED DEPORTED

COULD NOT PASS THE RIGID INQUIRY MADE BY SPECIAL COMMISSIONER FRED WATT, AND WERE SHIPPED TODAY.

San Francisco, June 28.—Eighty Hindu laborers were slated for deportation on the Pacific Mail liner Siberia, which sails for the Orient today. The deportation was ordered by a special board of inquiry, following the ruling of Immigration Commissioner Hart H. North that under the present immigration laws it would be impossible to exclude Hindus.

In the past Commissioner North has permitted nearly every immigrant Hindu to land. Complaint was made to the immigration bureau at Washington and Special Commissioner Fred Watt was sent here to investigate. The deportation of the 80 Hindus today is one of the results of his work. He subjected the Hindus to a rigid examination which they could not pass.

A Medley of Fatalities.

Trinidad, Colo., June 28.—Particulars of an atrocious crime at Vermojo, N. M., in which Carlos Archuleta, a mail carrier, shot Mrs. Juanita Gallegos, watched her 10-year-old daughter burn to death and then killed himself, were received here today.

The man returned from Terco intoxicated and in a fit of rage shot Mrs. Gallegos in the presence of her daughter. The girl tried to light a lamp and the flames communicated to her clothes. She burned to death in the room and Archuleta then went outside and shot himself. The woman will recover.

UNCLE JOE IS A TRIFLE SARCASTIC

Says That Roosevelt When He Sizes Himself Up Tells Himself That: "God Rested When He Made Me, and Was Glad."

LA FOLLETTE GETS SILLY

Cannon Thinks the Wisconsin Senator Should Go Out in the Park, Cut Down Some Trees and Advocate Strenuously—Senator La Follette's Statement That "Roosevelt Was the Greatest Living American" Was What Made Uncle Joe's Cigar Tilt Upwards.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

New York, June 28.—La Follette's statement that Theodore Roosevelt is the "greatest living American," and that he is in "fighting trim," made after the Wisconsin senator had visited Sagamore Hill, is agitating the administration forces today, and drawing some caustic remarks from the leaders of the regulars. Speaker Cannon is one of those not entirely jubilant over the La Follette interview.

"Why don't you go into Capitol Park and cut down some of the trees, and advocate strenuously?" asked the speaker.

"Why, if I could play on the keys of the world like Theodore Roosevelt," Cannon replied, as his cigar took a more definite angle, "in the words of a Western senator, whose name I shall not mention, but whom maybe you can identify, 'I would say 'God rested when he made me, and was glad.'"

Senator Carter, of Montana, asked to comment on the interview, remarked, sarcastically:

"I notice Senator LaFollette said Roosevelt is 'the greatest living American;' then, wagging his head fondly, added, 'he is in fighting trim,' and shortly afterward Colonel Roosevelt remarked, 'I have nothing to add to what the senator said.'"

Congressman Burnett, who called on Taft, denied that he intended to visit Oyster Bay. He said he had not asked permission to call, and that he had not been invited to do so.

Auto Drowned This One.

Hammond, Ind., June 28.—Peter Ripley, of Hammond, was drowned today when his automobile leaped from the road, turned turtle and pinned him beneath it in the waters of a creek. Six companions were injured.

"Westward" Is a Racer.

Kiel, June 28.—The Westward, owned by Alex S. Cochran, of New York, won the fourth successive race in the regatta here today. The Westward defeated the best German boats.

ZEPPELIN AIR SHIP WRECKED

MADE ASCENT TODAY WITH 20 REPORTERS—CAUGHT BY STORM, PROPELLER IS BROKEN AND IT BECOMES THE PLAYTHING OF THE GALE.

Dusseldorf, Germany, June 28.—Helplessly adrift before a heavy gale, the aerial liner Deutschland with 20 reporters aboard became unmanageable today. It is feared that those aboard the airship are in grave danger.

When last seen the Deutschland was being driven before a high wind over Osnabrueck, which is nearly 150 miles from Dusseldorf.

The Deutschland was supposed to descend in two hours but it has already been aloft 10 hours. When the wind arose the pilot was unable to return, as the maneuver motor was broken. Attempts were made to land at Dartmouth and Muenster but both times the plans were abandoned as too dangerous.

Messages have been sent broadcast and troops have been ordered to be in readiness to give assistance after the Deutschland alights.

No Details of Wreck.

Berlin, June 28.—The Zeppelin airship Deutschland was wrecked near Iburg, West Germany, according to a despatch received here this evening.

The Deutschland was driven before the wind for many hours while the storm raged. The engine was broken and it was impossible for the vessel to maneuver in the wind.

Iburg, where the Deutschland came to earth, is in an isolated mountain region 100 miles east of Dusseldorf. No details of the descent have yet been received.

THE UPPERS ARE NOT YET PUT DOWN

PULLMAN CAR COMPANY RESISTS ORDER OF THE INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSION TO MAKE UPPER BERTHS LOWER IN PRICE.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Chicago, June 28.—According to advices reaching here today from Washington, the time when the order of the inter-state commerce commission, reducing the price of upper berths goes into effect, has been extended from July 1 to the 12th.

The attorneys for the Pullman company kept the wires hot all day yesterday in an effort to secure the desired time extension.

When W. S. Kenyon, assistant U. S. attorney general, and the legal advisers appeared in court yesterday to argue the renewed motion for an injunction restraining the inter-state commerce commission from putting the new rate into effect, they found only Judge Grosscup on the bench. The law provides that actions of this character must be heard by three judges.

But no notices had been given the jurists and neither was present when the case was called. Efforts will be made to get the three judges together Wednesday. The case was tentatively continued to that day, but if it cannot be heard at that time, it will come up July 6.

HIS CORK LEG GAVE HIM AWAY

Seattle, Wash., June 28.—If Thaddeus E. York, alleged to be a bank forger, had not carelessly left a key to the knee joint of his cork leg, lying around, to be found by a detective, he might not be in the county jail today.

But York did leave the key lying around and is in jail.

The particular charge on which he was arrested is that of fleeing the American bank and Trust company, of Klamath Falls, Ore., out of $8,500. In addition the police accuse him of working a Bellingham bank for $2500 and a Seattle bank for $1,398, all in the last year.

York was captured yesterday as he was walking down the gangplank of the steamer President from San Francisco. He had occasion to have his cork leg repaired while in Oregon recently and a new key made for the knee joint. The old key furnished the clue which led to his arrest.

TACOMANS REFUSE TO PAY FARE

Street Car Company Beaten in the Courts Ejects Passengers Who Refuse to Pay Ten-Cent Fares, and Much Trouble Ensues.

IT MAKES CHILDREN PAY

Women Are Also Forced to Dig Up the Extra Nickel, the Big Company Taking Advantage of Their Helplessness, But the Men Stand Pat—Company Refuses Transfers and Cars All Carry Policemen to Prevent Serious Trouble Arising.

Tacoma, Wash., June 28.—Policemen are riding on every car from the ten-cent fare section of the street car company today to see that conductors and citizens do not fight over the five-cent fare war now on.

The action of Mayor Fawcett in putting men back on the cars after they had been ejected by the company for not paying two fares into the city, yesterday precipitated a crisis. The street railway company rushed its appeal to the supreme court in the case deciding against it in superior court. The officials then filled the Fern Hill cars with extra conductors and inspectors to oust citizens who refused to pay the extra nickel.

Citizens called on City Attorney Stiles and asked whether they had a right to resist ejection after having paid their five-cent fare. The attorney told them yes, and they went back and it was a pitched battle all evening between citizens and street car men.

City policemen were on hand to make arrests whenever a blow was struck, and six were taken to police headquarters. By superior numbers the citizens practically carried the day and few paid the extra nickel.

Today the company tried a new scheme. It refused transfers to those who paid five cents. Practically every one is today traveling for five cents excepting women and children who are forced to pay double because they are unable to resist the demands of the company.

The people are more determined than ever to pay but five cents and numbers of persons molested by the street railway inspector, say they will bring suits for damages.

Big Ship on Fire.

Vancouver, B. C., June 28.—Heavy smoke pouring out of number five hold of the Blue Funnel liner Onana, unloading at Evans, Coleman and Evans wharf last night caused a general alarm to be turned in to the city brigade. After an hour of hard work, the dense smoke hampering the firemen, the seat of the fire was got at, it being found that a large pile of sawdust in the almost empty hold was ablaze. The vessel nor cargo was not damaged.

Informers Get $10,000.

Washington, June 28.—Owing to the fact that only $10,000 is in the government's moiety fund, Richard Parr, who was awarded $100,000 for discovering the fraudulent underweighing of the sugar trust at New York, will have to wait until the next session of congress to secure the full amount due him. The $10,000 probably will be turned over to Parr within a few days. The remainder of the award will be appropriated by congress at the next session.

Killed Him for Laughing.

Memphis, Tenn., June 28.—Ollie Hollis, 20 years of age, is a prisoner in the county jail today charged with the murder of Leslie Pratten, following a ball game at Korrville, near here. Pratten laughed at Hollis when he struck out during the game. Two hours later, it is alleged, Hollis met Pratten outside of the grounds and shot him through the breast. Pratten died instantly. He was married and had two small children.
